60 MINUTES

- 03/03/99 60 MINUTES CLASSICS
 "Chernobyl"- followup on the following segments dealing with the 1986 nuclear disaster in the Russian Ukraine: "Chernobyl" (OAD: 02/18/90;
 "Sarcophagus" OAD: 12/18/94; and "Chernobyl" OAD: 04/28/96. The followup is an interview with Keith Baverstock, a radiation specialist at the World Health Organization who talks about the continuing effect of the disaster. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Michael Gavshon, Barbara Dury)
 "Genius"- a report on the savant syndrome, an extraordinary skill or talent that sometimes occurs in an autistic or retarded person. (C: Morley Safer - P: Suzanne St. Pierre, Barbara Dury) (OAD: 10/23/84)
 "Arthur Miller"- followup to "Arthur Miller: Timebends...A Life" (OAD: 11/15/87), an interview with playwright Arthur Miller about his life and his marriage to Marilyn Monroe. The followup is an interview with Miller, now 72, whose "Death Of A Salesman" has opened again on Broadway. (C: Dan Rather - P: Alan Golds, Gail Eisen)

03/07/99 "Case Closed?"- two years ago English nanny Louise Woodward was tried for the murder of eight-month-old Matthew Eappen and found guilty. Recent evidence seems to indicate that the child might not have died as the immediate result of shaking and slamming while in Woodward's care, but of strangulation, which might have occurred several days before his actual death. Includes interviews with: prosecutor Martha Coakley; defense attorney Barry Scheck; Dr. Floyd Gilles, Children's Hospital in Los Angeles; Dr. Eli Neuberger, Boston Children's Hospital; and Dr. Marvin Nelson, a colleague of Dr. Gilles. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Katie Leishman, Walt Bogdanich)
 "Kissinger"- an interview with former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger whose memoirs Years of Renewal include his reflections on President Richard Nixon. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)
 Andy Rooney Topic: "Cats" - cat owners
 Update: "Mishap Valley" OAD: 01/24/99

- 03/14/99 "Ten Years Later"- ten years ago, the Exxon Valdez, a supertanker carrying fifty-three million gallons of crude oil, ran aground in Alaska's Prince William Sound, creating the worst environmental disaster in U.S. history. Despite Exxon officials claim to the contrary, damage from the resultant oil leak still continues. Includes an interview with Captain Joseph Hazelwood who was accused of being intoxicated while at the helm of the vessel. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Trevor Nelson)
"Brother Rick Curry"- Rick Curry, a 56-year-old Jesuit Brother, was born without a right forearm. Curry, a college professor, renowned baker and best-selling cookbook author, is founder of the National Theater Workshop of the Handicapped, the only known theater school solely for the physically handicapped. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine)
"This Is Peace?"- despite the signing of a peace treaty ending war between Catholics and Protestants in Northern Ireland, violence there is by no means at an end. New problems have arisen because armed units of both religions, called paramilitaries, have turned their guns on their own communities to strengthen their hold over them. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert G. Anderson, Paul A. Bellinger)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Monica" - the book about Monica Lewinsky
Update: "Case Closed" OAD: 03/07/99
- 03/21/99 "A Death In The Family"- a jury found Rahab Amer innocent in the death of her two-year-old son, but social workers disputed the verdict and took the case to family court where a judge pronounced her an unfit parent and took away her other children. Almost ten years later there is evidence that the child's death may have been caused by a little-known condition called osteogenesis imperfecta or Brittle Bone Disease, but so far no court will hear the case. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin)
"The Menuhins"- a profile of violinist and conductor Yehudi Menuhin, who died last week at age 82, and his wife of 40 years, Diana. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jeanne Solomon Langley)
"The Untouchables"- a report on the plight of India's untouchables, a caste so shunned that the upper classes refuse to touch the or even share the same water source with them. Includes an interview with Professor Sunil Khilnani, of the University who is the author of a book on contemporary India and the legacy of the caste system. (C: Christiane Amanpour - P: Andrew Tkach, Scott Bronstein)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Wealth of Information" - old people forgetting things
- 03/28/99 "George Lucas"- an interview with director George Lucas and a behind-the-scenes look at the highly anticipated Star Wars movie which includes the most special effects footage LucasFilm has released yet and an explanation of how those effects were done. Lucas also talks about his personal life...his divorce and his three adopted children. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
"Unfinished Business"- six Iraqi dissidents who, during the Persian Gulf War, had worked with the CIA to overthrow Saddam Hussein, were subsequently flown to the United States where, instead of receiving a warm welcome, they were put in jail because they had tried to enter the country without the proper paperwork. After two years, the Iraqis are still confined to prison and their attorneys have been denied security clearance to examine the evidence against them. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Leslie Cockburn)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Kosovo" - Andy defends the U.S. position regarding Kosovo

48 HOURS

03/11/99 PREEMPTION

03/15/99 "Revenge"- focuses on the lengths to which people will go when they decide to strike back after they have been wronged. Includes reports on: two Florida ministers involved in an adulterous triangle which culminated in one of the ministers hiring a hit man to kill his rival; a playwright whose dispute with his producer over money drove him to seek revenge by giving damaging information to the man's ex-wife; a woman whose husband left her with three children and no child support and who now makes a career of tracking down deadbeat dads; a comparative shopper who was arrested for bringing his computer into a store and who retaliated by filing a civil suit against the store; and a class that teaches people how to get even without breaking the law (C: Dan Rather, Susan Spencer, Erin Moriarty, Thalia Assuras - P: Katherine Davis, James A. Barry, Marc Goldbaum, Gail Zimmerman, Jay Pedinoff) (OAD: 05/07/98)

03/18/99 PREEMPTION

03/25/99 PREEMPTION

60 MINUTES II

03/03/99 PREEMPTION

03/10/99 "The Shame Of Srebrenica"- a report on the role of peacekeepers amid speculation that U.S. troops will be sent to Kosovo. Includes interviews with Dutch Army officers who were sent to protect the Muslims in Srebrenica. Outnumbered by the Serbs, the UN peacekeepers were unable to take effective action to stop the slaughter of countless civilians. (C: Bob Simon - P: Randall Joyce)
"Warren Beatty"- an interview with actor Warren Beatty. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin)
"Genius"- a followup to "Genius" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 10/23/83), a report on the savant syndrome, an extraordinary skill or talent that sometimes occurs in an autistic or retarded person. The followup is an interview with savant George Finn, now 59-years-old, whose story inspired the movie "Rainman." (C: Morley Safer - P: Suzanne St. Pierre, Barbara Dury)
Uncommon Sense: the Monica Lewinsky interview (C: Jimmy Tingle)

60 MINUTES II (continued)

- 03/17/99 "Risky Business"- day trading is a method of investing by which anyone with a computer and the right software can buy and sell stocks. Problems arise because, although there is a potential for huge rewards, there is also a high risk. Includes an interview with Harvey Houtkin, who wants to open up electronic stock trading to everyone by means of his books and seminars on the subject. (C: Dan Rather - P: Phil Shimkin)
"Leading Lady"- a profile of Pat Summitt, head coach of the University of Tennessee women's basketball team. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Andrew Wolff)
"Oprah"- followup to "Oprah" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 12/14/86), an interview with the talk show host Oprah Winfrey. The followup is an interview with Ms. Winfrey, now an actress, television producer and philanthropist. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Deborah DeLuca Sheh)
"Uncommon Sense"- big tobacco company settlements (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 03/24/99 "The Lost Children"- from 1947 to 1967 the British government, in collaboration with churches and charities, came up with a secret plan to relieve the problem of overcrowded children's homes. Thousands of the children were shipped to Australia where, they were told, they would be adopted. Rather than being placed with families, the children were taken to institutions run by the Christian Brothers where they were used as laborers, given inadequate food, and subjected to physical and sexual abuse. Now adults, many of the children have discovered that they were not really orphans but had families who were not able to support them. Margaret Humphreys, an English social worker has founded, The Child Migrant Trust to help them find their parents and their past. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich)
"Nadja"- followup to "Nadja" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 12/07/86), a profile of violinist Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg. The followup is an interview with Ms. Salerno-Sonnenberg who talks about an accident four years ago which cost her the tip of her left pinky finger and actually seemed to revitalize her career. (C: Morley Safer - P: Gail Eisin)
- 03/31/99 "President Clinton"- an interview with President Bill Clinton who talks about the current crisis in Kosovo, the possibility that his wife will run for the Senate and his problems over the past year, including an impeachment trial. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)
"Judy Garland"- a followup to "Judy" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 08/03/75), a profile of Judy Garland's career. The followup is an interview with the singer's daughters Liza Minelli and Lorna Luft who talk about how Garland's life and death affected them, and about her renewed popularity. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Barbara Dury)
"Uncommon Sense"- using gambling to fund education (C: Jimmy Tingle)
